

"JIN, JIYAN, AZADÎ

AND THE REVOLUTION OF THE PEOPLE

<https://bit.ly/3INIMm1>

04.03. + 05.03.

via Zoom

<https://bit.ly/3EJMxGF>

Workshop

04.03. 12:00 CET

The role of university students in the Peoples' Revolution of Iran and Rojhilat

Regarding the peoples revolution in Rojhilat and Iran that has been going on for a couple of months now under the slogan "Women, Life, Freedom" - what is the role of the university students? Students from Rojhilat and Iran will talk about their experiences in the last months. Together we will discuss what role students play in social protests and revolutions and how the students in Rojhilat and Iran can be supported in solidarity. This workshop is aimed at students.

Symposium

05.03. 08:00 CET

I. PANEL CET: 08:00-10:00

"Jin, Jiyan, Azadî" and women's revolution. What is the philosophy behind this slogan? Where and how did it start? What has the slogan achieved? What is the influence of "Jin, Jiyan, Azadî" on the Rojava Revolution and Rojhilat Revolution? With inputs from:

Spokesperson of the Academy of Jineoloji
PhD candidate in Political Sciences at EHESS in Paris
Students of the University of Rojava in Qamishlo and a presentation of the workshop discussion by students from the Universities of Rojava and Bremen.

Q/A: Questions and answers on the topics of the first panel.

Break 30 min

II. PANEL CET: 10:30-12:30

The second panel will focus on the situation and events in Rojhilat and Iran. What happened? What is happening now? And how can the events be assessed and interpreted? With inputs from:

PhD Candidate/Researcher at Bielefeld Graduate School in History and Sociology)
Ahwazi journalist and human rights activist (Iran)
Baluchi writer and women's rights activist (Iran)
Spokesperson of RAWA- Revolutionary Association of the Women of Afghanistan

Q/A: Questions and answers on the topics of the second panel.

Depending on the event with interpretation for English, Kurmanci, Sorani and Persian

Supported by:

