Varieties of English in the EFL classroom of German secondary schools From first testing to actual teaching

This talk presents the results of the research project "Transferprojekt 1 – Varietäten des Englischen in der gymnasialen Oberstufe", which was conducted at the collaborative research centre on multilingualism (SFB 538 "Mehrsprachigkeit") at Hamburg University from 2007-2010. In particular, I will present the teaching materials which resulted from this project as well as an example of implementing them in grammar schools ("gymnasiale Kursstufe") by means of complex competence tasks ("Komplexe Kompetenzaufgaben").

Montag, 31.10.2016, 16:15 - 17:45, SFG 2040
